

Are apexsolar photovoltaic panels good

Would you use apex if it was the last solar company?

I would not use Apex if it was the last solar company in the entire solar system. There are no production or equipment warranties despite the contract and written information. Read the owners responses to poor ratings. It is always the customers fault. NEVER do they say we made a mistake and we will fix it. Delays are always someone else's fault.

Why should you choose Apex Solar?

At Apex Solar we pride ourselves on our great service and friendly expertise. Tim manages all the projects himself - from start to finish - so you know exactly who you are dealing with. And we don't just disappear once we've finished your installation either. First class customer care after installation is super important to us.

Who is Apex Solar?

Tim Baker owner of Apex Solar was courteous, factual, competitive price, and a delight to liaise with. Installation went ahead smoothly and System was working properly before I knew it. Would certainly recommend Apex to anyone in my area (which is mid north coast NSW) who wanted solar.

Does Apex Solar have a limiter?

Apex Solar was the only company to include this item(limiter) which was mandatory for a larger system like mine. The installation was carried out over a day with military precision. The finished rooftop install of 28 panels blended in perfectly with our colour bond roof,resulting in an unobtrusive finish.
