What is a solar panel warranty?

Solar panel warranties vary by manufacturer and type of panel. A standard solar panel warranty should come with at least 10 years of protection. Solar panel warranties typically won't reimburse for labor costs associated with installing new equipment or shipping fees for new equipment.

What makes a good solar panel performance warranty?

An ideal solar panel performance warranty should include the following conditions: Certain solar manufacturers may even guarantee a degradation rate as low as 0.25% per year, coupled with a performance warranty period of up to 30 years.

Are solar panel warranties transferable in a home sale?

In most cases, solar panel warranties are transferable to the new owner in a home sale. However, some warranties are restricted to the original owner, so it is crucial to clarify this point with the manufacturer and installer offering the warranty.

Can a solar panel warranty be void?

The following are some common ways in which a solar panel warranty can be voided. Most solar manufacturers only offer a warranty if your PV system is installed by professionals. In other words, you will most likely void the warranty if you attempt a DIY installation, even if you manage to install the panels properly.

Do solar companies offer warranties?

Solar companies offer warranties for their solar panels and related equipment since consumers want assurances and guarantees on such a large purchase. However, most solar warranties can be a little confusing for the average person to understand, as they contain complicated technical and legal jargon.

Which solar panel has the best warranty?

Comparisons should focus on product warranty terms, power guarantees, labor warranty terms, transferability and bankability, and the availability of an extended warranty. Based on our ranking system, Panasonic has the strongest overall warranty, with REC and Qcells close behind. Why are solar panel warranties important?
