Is installing solar panels illegal in any state?

Technically, no state outlaws or bans solar panels; quite the opposite. Most states have solar access laws that forbid any agreement, covenant, condition, bylaw, or contract that outlaws or limits solar installations by Homeowners Associations (HOA) or other municipal bodies.

Are solar panels legal?

In fact, the government has been supporting solar panels by providing support and financial incentives. Certain homeowners associations (HOAs) prohibit solar panel installations, but these are generally illegal and unenforceable. Generally, you may assume that solar panel installations are acceptable, even encouraged by the government.

Are HOAs allowed to install solar panels?

For example, in 2022, the North Carolina Supreme Court and the Indiana legislature limited HOAs' power over solar panel installations. But not all states have laws that guarantee HOA residents the right to install solar panels, leaving homeowners there without much legal leverage. What are solar access laws?

Do I need a permit to install solar panels?

Installing solar panels on a commercial property, on the other hand, will usually require a permit. The permit process for commercial installations is typically more complex than for residential installations, so it is important to consult with a professional solar installer before beginning the process.
