What types of warranties cover solar panels?

There are two basic types of warranties that cover solar panels. A product warranty protects you from defects in a solar panel stemming from material quality or manufacturing errors. This is also referred to as an equipment or materials warranty

How do I get a solar panel warranty?

Generally, the most robust warranties are obtained by hiring installation companies certified by the solar brands they represent. Alternatively, long warranties can also be secured from solar manufacturers that provide their own installation services. What Is Not Covered by a Solar Panel Warranty?

What is a solar panel performance warranty?

A solar panel performance warranty guarantees that a home solar panel installation will meet or exceed a baseline of electric power output over the panels' lifetime and warranty period.

Can a solar panel warranty be voided?

For example, warranties may be voided if the solar panels are not installed according to specified guidelines or if unauthorized modifications are made. Certain solar panel warranties might not cover fire damage or other outside sources.

How long does a solar panel warranty last?

A 25-year performance warranty is the industry standard for top-tier solar panel manufacturers. Material warranties can be shorter, and while 10 years is fairly typical, that number can vary by manufacturer.
